Bylaws

Preamble

WHEREAS, it is the express purpose of God our Heavenly Father to call out of the world a people purified for His own possession, who constitute the Body of Christ, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus being the Cornerstone.

WHEREAS, the members of the Body of Christ are enjoined to assemble themselves together for worship, instruction in the Scripture, fellowship, counsel, and the work of ministry, and for the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices provided for in the New Testament, therefore,

BEITRESOLVED, that we recognize ourselves as a local Body of Christian disciples and do hereby adopt these bylaws as our articles of governance as we work together to bring glory to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and the spread of Gospel, and that under the laws of the State of New York we may exercise all the rights and privileges granted to religious bodies.

Article I Name

The name of this church shall be Church of the Vine, Inc.

Article II Purpose

This church will exist for the glory of God, and to that end we will strive by gathering together for worship, receiving instruction from Scripture, fellowshiping and serving one another, preaching the gospel to all people, serving the community, supporting missions, ordaining ministers, planting churches, establishing and overseeing places of worship, and engaging in activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient for the accomplishment of these things, or which are incidental thereto, or connected therewith, consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code.

Article III Membership

Section 1 Process of Membership

Each prospective member must have been a regular attendee of the church services for at least three (3) months, give evidence of his/her faith in Jesus Christ as his/her only Savior and Lord, agree to submit to the teaching of Scripture as expressed in the Statement of Faith, and promise to keep the commitments expressed in the Church Covenant.

An individual seeking to become a member of this church must submit in writing that they wish to become a member. The applicant must include the following information with their request:

- A. The name of the applicant must be listed.
- B. There must be a statement attesting that the member meets all prerequisite requirements.

The Board of Elders shall be responsible for assessing each person's qualifications for membership and shall recommend the prospective member to the church who will then approve or disapprove of by a two-thirds vote.

Section 2 Privileges of Membership

Our church consists of its members. In accordance with the commitments listed in the Church Covenant, each member shall be privileged and expected to participate in, and contribute to, the life and ministry of the church.

Only those shall be entitled to serve in the ministries of the church who are members of this congregation (Non-members may serve on an ad-hoc basis with the approval of the Board of Elders).

Voting is limited to those individuals that have been fully accepted into membership and whose status as a member is active. Binding decisions made by this church shall be decided by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership.

Section 3 Termination of Membership

Removal from membership shall follow the pattern set forth by Christ in Matthew 18:15-17. A member in sin must first be confronted about their sin. If they continue in sin, two or three other members must confront them and call them to repentance. If they continue in sin, the matter shall be made known to all the members or the church and they too should call them to repentance. If they continue in sin still, the members of the church may remove the unrepentant member from membership by a two-thirds majority vote. Reason for removal include:

- A. Propagation of doctrines or practices contrary to our Statement of Faith (Romans 16:17, 18; Galatians 1:8, 9; Titus 3:9-11; II Thessalonians 3:6).
- B. Living in sin or in a manner which is inconsistent with true faith in Christ (I Corinthians 5:1-13; Galatians 5:19-21).
- C. Voluntary withdrawal from membership
- D. Deceased

Any person who may have been terminated as a member shall be notified of this action in writing and shall have the right to appeal to the Board of Elders for reconsideration of said action. The members of the church may vote to restore to membership any person previously excluded, upon request of the excluded person, evidence of the excluded person's repentance and reformation, and by recommendation of the Board of Elders (II Corinthians 2:6-8).

Article XVI Statement of Faith

Scripture

The Bible, consisting of 39 Old Testament books and 27 New Testament books, is the inspired, self-authenticating Word of God and is true in all that it teaches (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:20-21). The Bible is the supreme authority for faith and practice through which God has made Himself and His salvation known (Heb. 4:12).

God

There is one God (Isa. 45:5) who eternally exists as a Trinity of three distinct Persons in one essence; Father (Matt. 6:9), Son (Tit. 2:13), and Holy Spirit (Acts 5:3-4). God is the Creator, Sustainer, and Sovereign of all things, to whom all love, worship, and glory is due (Rom. 11:36; 1 Tim. 1:17; Jude 25)

Father. The Father is the source of all things (1 Cor. 8:6). He is sovereign over all eternity and all events therein (Prov. 16:33; Eph. 1:4). He is the Person through whom redemption was planned (John 3:16; Ro. 3:25; Eph. 1:9-10).

Son. The Son is the fully divine (John 1:14; 20:28; Tit. 2:13; Rom. 9:5, 10:9; 2 Pet. 1:1; 1 John 5:20) co-creator, co-sustainer, and heir of all things (Col. 1:16; Heb. 1:2). He is the decisive revelation of the Father (2 Cor. 4:6; Heb. 1:2) through whom redemption was accomplished (Heb. 12:2)

Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is a fully divine person of the Trinity (Acts 5:3-4) who inspired the writing of Scripture (2 Pet. 1:21), regenerates the elect (John 3:5; Tit. 3:5), facilitates sanctification (Rom. 15:16; 2 Cor. 3:18), and provides assurance of salvation in Christ (Gal. 4:6; 1 John 3:24). The Spirit also ploughs the hearts unbelievers by convicting them of sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:8). Thus, the Spirit is the person through whom redemption is applied.

Mankind

Though made in the image of God, man fell from his original innocence becoming totally depraved (Jer. 17:9), alienated from God (Col. 1:21), and proper objects of God's wrath (Eph. 2:3; 5:6; Col. 3:6; 1 Thess. 1:10; Heb. 3:11; 4:3). All people have inherited this corrupt nature and have fallen short of God's standard themselves. Therefore, all people stand guilty before God, deserving the full weight of His justice (Rom. 5:12; 1 Cor. 15:22).

The Gospel

The Gospel is the good news that God has acted through the life, death, resurrection, and exaltation of Jesus to inaugurate the Kingdom of God, to reconcile the world to Himself, and to restore all things (1 Cor. 1:1-5; 2 Cor. 5:18-19). The Gospel is the core of Christianity which gives support to all biblical teaching and practice.

Salvation

God's offer of salvation is by His grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. Mankind is saved from eternal damnation and given eternal life (Rom 6:23), not by any inherent worth or merit of his own, but by the grace God (Ephesians 2:8-9) through conscious faith in Jesus Christ alone (John 14:6). No alternate avenue to salvation exists (Acts 4:12).

When one repents and believes the Gospel he is united to Christ and thereby acquitted of his guilt before God and credited the righteousness of Christ (Rom. 3:121-26; 2 Cor. 5:21). Accordingly, the Holy Spirit indwells every genuine believer, affecting His new birth and causing him to be a new creation (2 Cor. 5:17; Titus 3:5). The Holy Spirit progressively sanctifies the believer by facilitating spiritual growth and maturity (2 Thess. 2:13) until the consummation of redemptive history when believers will be given an incorruptible body (1 Cor. 15:52-54).

The Church

The Church is comprised of all persons who are united in Christ's body through faith in the Gospel. The Church is visible in local congregations where God is worshipped (1 Pet. 2:9), where Biblical truth is preserved (Jude 1:3), and where believers are equipped for ministry (Eph. 4:12).

The biblical offices of the church are Elder and Deacon. Elders in the local church are to be men who meet the qualifications as set forth in Scripture (1 Tim. 3:1-7; Titus 1:6-9; 1 Tim. 3:8-13; 1 Tim. 2:12). Deacons likewise, are to meet the qualifications as set forth in Scripture (1 Tim. 3:8-13; Acts 6:1-6).

Ordinances

Baptism involves the immersion of a believer in water; an act which serves to symbolically identify that believer with Christ. The believer is buried (immersed) in the likeness of Christ's death, and raised (from the water) in the likeness of Christ's resurrection. Baptism further symbolizes a believer's death to the old sinful life, and his resurrection to a new life in Christ (Rom. 6:3-4). The Lord's Supper is a reverent, symbolic act whereby believers memorialize the death of Christ (Luke 22:19). Unbelievers who take the Lord's Supper are grave danger (1 Cor. 11:28-30).

Last Things

The world awaits the return of Christ (Acts 1:11) when He will judge all men (Rev. 20:5) and consummate His eternal Kingdom in a new heavens and new earth. Those who have not believed in Christ will be consigned to eternal destruction, while those who have believed in Christ will enjoy fellowship with God forever in His new creation (Matt. 13:42; 2 Thess. 1:19) where the glory of God will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea (Hab. 2)
